

June 9th

On this day in...

1990: Remnants of Hurricane Boris produced rain and thunderstorms across San Diego County starting on this day and ending on 6/10. 1.41 inches fell at Mt. Laguna, 0.98 inch at Escondido, and 0.87 inch at Fallbrook. 0.37 inch fell at San Diego in 30 minutes. San Diego and Borrego Springs both recorded their second highest June rainfalls on record, with 0.38 and 0.23 inches, respectively.

1979: Five consecutive days of high temperatures at 90° or higher at San Diego started on this day and ended on 6/13, peaking with 101° on 6/10. Minimum temperatures were between 69° and 72°.